Implemented in 2021, the Volunteer Program within the Lone Peak Police Department has been a great success for both the department as well as the residents in the communities we serve. Our volunteers in the V.I.P.S Program help in many ways. Some of their contributions include:

- Assist with patrolling the cities of Alpine and Highland
- Conduct residential property checks during owner absences
- Assist with crowd and traffic control
- Help with vehicle lock outs
- Assist with Animal Control calls
- Substitute for Crossing Guards when needed
- Learn use of police radio codes to report crime, traffic and more
- Act as an extra set of eyes and ears
- High-profile deterrent to crime
- Contribute to making Alpine and Highland a safer place to live
- THANK YOU VOLUNTEERS!
